am of the opinion that you, as the person responsible for carrying on the business detailed above, are failing to comply with Regulation 12(2) of The Health Protection (Coronavirus Restrictions) (No.2)(Wales) Regulations 2020.

In order to comply, you MUST, For the purposes of minimising the risk of exposure to coronavirus at the premises, or the spread of coronavirus by those who have been at the premises, take the following measures to ensure that you comply with Regulation 12(2) :

- (a) take all reasonable measures to ensure—
 - (i) that a distance of 2 metres is maintained between any persons on the premises (except between two members of the same household, or a carer and the person assisted by the carer);
 - (ii) where persons are required to wait to enter the premises, that a distance of 2 metres is maintained between them (except between two members of the same household, or a carer and the person assisted by the carer),
- (b) take the following other reasonable measures which limit close face to face interaction and maintain hygiene for that purpose, such as —
 - (i) changing the layout of premises including the location of furniture and workstations;
 - (ii) controlling use of entrances, passageways, stairs and lifts;
 - (iii) controlling use of shared facilities such as toilets and kitchens;
 - (iv) otherwise controlling the use of, or access to, any other part of the premises;
 - (v) installing barriers or screens;
 - (vi) providing or requiring use of personal protective equipment,
- (c) provide information to those entering or working at the premises about how to minimise the risk of exposure to coronavirus.

You are required to take the above measures by the following date: 12/09/2020

Any person who, without reasonable excuse, removes, obscures or damages this notice or accompanying sign required to be displayed under paragraph 7(2) of Schedule 5 commits an offence.

Failure to comply with this Improvement Notice may result in the closure of the premises (Schedule 5, paragraph 2)

NOTES

The Health Protection (Coronavirus Restrictions) (No.2) (Wales) Regulations 2020 (as amended) are made under The Public Health (Control of Diseases) Act 1984 (as amended). "Coronavirus" means severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2).

A "person responsible for carrying on a business" includes the owner, proprietor and manager of that business.

Termination of premises improvement notice

If you consider that you have complied with this Improvement notice and wish to apply for it to be terminated :

(1) An enforcement officer may issue a notice terminating a premises improvement notice if satisfied that :

- (a) the measures specified in the premises improvement notice have been taken, or
- (b) other measures have been taken to ensure that regulation 12(2) can be complied with at the premises in question.

(2) A premises improvement notice ceases to have effect at the time notice of the termination is issued. (Schedule 5 paragraph 4)

Your right of appeal

(1) A person to whom a premises improvement notice is issued may appeal to a magistrates' court against the notice.

(2) An appeal must be made—

(a) by way of complaint for an order, and in accordance with the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(38), and

(b) within 7 days after the day the notice is issued.

(3) But a magistrates' court may allow an appeal to be made after the expiry of the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(b) if satisfied that there is a good reason for the failure to appeal before the expiry of that period (and for any delay in applying for permission to appeal out of time).

(4) A magistrates' court may suspend the effect of a premises improvement notice pending the determination of an appeal.

(5) On an appeal against a premises improvement notice, a magistrates' court may—

(a) confirm the decision to issue the notice;

(b) direct that the notice is to cease to have effect;

(c) modify the notice;

(d) make such other order as the court considers appropriate.

(6) If the magistrates' court directs that a notice is to cease to have effect or modifies a notice, it may order the local authority for the area in which the premises in question are situated to compensate the person responsible for the premises pay compensation for loss suffered as the result of the issue of the notice.

(7) An appeal by either party against the decision of a magistrates' court on an appeal under this section may be brought to the Crown Court.

(8) On an appeal to the Crown Court, the Court may—

(a) confirm, vary or reverse the decision of the magistrates court;

(b) remit the case to the magistrates' court to dispose of in accordance with directions given by the Crown Court.
